Camp Shalom tribute to JCSO 1981-1982

A photograph of a wooden sign mounted on a wooden frame. A person's hand is visible at the top, holding a wooden post. The sign is a rectangular piece of wood with text engraved or painted on it. The text is a tribute to the Jewish Children's Service Organization (JCSO) for their help over the years with projects, programs, facilities, and scholarships. It mentions that thousands of children say "Thank you JCSO, we are most Grateful" and is dated "CAMP SHALOM SUMMER OF 1982".

FOOD FOR A CAUSE

WEST HARTFORD – Board members of the Jewish Children's Service Organization (JCSO) brought food items to their first meeting of the year, that they then donated to the Jewish Family Services of Greater Hartford kosher food pantry. Made up entirely of volunteers, JCSO meets throughout the year to award funds to families in crisis for children's clothing, daycare, medical bills and college. Among those attending the organization's meeting, held at The Emanuel Synagogue in West Hartford were (left to right) Joyce Libbin, Mickey Libbin, Rina Abeles, Sandra Rudnicki, Emmy Fast, Marcia Mizrachi, Linda Stein, Joseph Bacher, and Sue Waterman.

Jonathan's Dream

Reimagined

Where we can all come out and play.

JONATHAN PETER BARZACH

APRIL 1, 1994 - JANUARY 5, 1995

Jonathan was a sweet little boy with old soul eyes. He was curious about everything and enjoyed when his family sang to him. He taught everyone he touched to make the most of every moment and to deal with loss by celebrating life.

Just before his death from spinal muscular atrophy (SMA), family members were encouraged to think of a memorial project they could do in his honor. When they told Jonathan their idea of a place where children and families of all abilities could play, learn and celebrate life together, he smiled!

The original Jonathan's Dream, one of the first inclusive playgrounds in the world, was built in 1996 - 18 months after Jonathan's death. It was rebuilt in 2017 as Jonathan's Dream Reimagined - when he would have been 23.

Always remembered with love by Peter, Amy, Daniel, Alyssa and Michael Barzach.
